

Don't let media conglomerates consolidate more broadcast mediums. As a radio student I feel that the diversity of capitalism involves more voices and better programming. A unilateral conglomerate would only be serving their agenda rather than the public interest. Thank you for your time.

Jeff Smith